

Mission

Our aim is to encourage business-to-business networking within Australia and bilateral trade between Australia and Israel, which we have been doing successfully since 1970.

Upcoming Events

Major Business Luncheon
Friday 12 December 2008
12.00 noon to 2.00pm
Hyatt Regency Adelaide

'The effect of Climate Change to the Agribusiness Industry'

Agricultural businesses say the change is affecting their operations, according to new figures from the Australian Bureau of Statistics. Rural industries face challenges to effectively respond to climate change as well as reducing emissions to alleviate climate change impacts. What will farmers do to respond to this change?

Guest Speakers:

Scott Ashby is the Chief Executive of the Department of Water, Land and Biodiversity Conservation (DWLBC) in the South Australian Government.

Adam Kay is the Chief Executive Officer of Cotton Australia, based in Sydney. Adam is responsible for the overall management of the organisation; represents Cotton Australia to government, media and other industry organisations and is the public face of Cotton Australia.

Lawrie Stanford, Manager - Information and Analysis with the Australian Wine and Brandy Corporation, is charged with managing a team that keeps the Australian wine sector informed.

AICC & YBF Members Only Cocktail Party
Wednesday 11 February 2009

6pm to 8pm
SA Water House

Join us at the new SA Water Learning Centre, which will include state-of-the-art interactive education technology and provide a range of opportunities to promote water literacy to the community.

SA Water House was the first building in South Australia to be awarded a 6 Star Green Star – Office Design rating from the Green Building Council of Australia – the largest commercially developed building in Australia to receive such a rating.

'SA Business Leaders' Series
CEO Events
2009

Following our successful 'Share the Vision' series in 2008, which brought Ministers in the SA State Cabinet to the business community in a rare engagement opportunity; the AICC is now delighted to introduce you to the 'SA Business Leaders' Series for 2009. These events will have question and answer sessions and are a perfect opportunity to meet the business leaders of our State and to get an insight to what they have as a vision for the future. Confirmed speakers so far include Mr Alf Ianiello, CEO of Detmold Packaging; Tim & James Sarah of the Sarah Group; Mr Jim Whalley, Managing Director of the Nova Group.

Survey

To successfully continue on our mission of encouraging business-to-business networking within Australia and Inspiring Leadership we have engaged Square Holes to conduct a survey of our members and occasional event attendees. Over the next few weeks you will be invited by direct email to complete our online survey completely anonymously and we thank you in advance for your constructive and honest feedback. Results will be announced in our AICC Alliances in Autumn.

2006 Cabernet Sauvignon

In the 1800s Goolwa was the most important river port in South Australia linked by rail to Port Elliot, where sailing ships unloaded ballast stone to refill their holds with wool and grain for their return trip to England. Buildings on Ballast Stone Estate Vineyards are made from this stone.

This soft, full bodied, fruit driven wine exhibits the aromas of mint chocolate and vanillin oak which carry through to layers of berry fruit and fine tannins on the palate.

ALCOHOL	14.5%
VARIETY	100% Cabernet Sauvignon
GROWING REGION	McLaren Vale

membership with the AICC

The Australia-Israel Chamber of Commerce (AICC) is Australia's pre-eminent Chamber of Commerce and one of the country's most prestigious and active business networking organisations. The AICC exists to meet the needs of businesses either by increasing business opportunities of our members within Australia or by increasing bilateral trade between Australia and Israel.

The AICC enjoys a unique position in the Australian business community through its ability to attract the nation's most prominent business and political leaders as both speakers and event attendees. The AICC leverages this extraordinary business network to deliver its members a strong commercial return, both in terms of targeted business promotion and personal access to relevant decision makers.

Established in 1970, the AICC is a national organisation with offices in Adelaide, Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane and Perth, as well as in Auckland and Tel Aviv. Each of these offices manages an extensive and impressive member network and event series to enhance non-partisan business networking at senior levels and vigorously promotes bilateral trade through inbound and outbound trade missions. Each State Chamber has its own particular benefits, terms and conditions and costings for Membership.

In South Australia the AICC hosts over 60 events per year. Our Major Business Luncheons regularly attract 250+ corporate business leaders. In addition to these lunches, and due to popular demand, we have been organising more smaller events such as our CEO and Up Close & Personal Events, Boardroom Lunches, Seminars and Member Only Events with an attendance of 20 to 100 people that provide quality business networking opportunities and more personal interaction with our guest speakers.

Membership of the AICC is open to any individual or organisation that wishes to join.

Membership of AICC also gives you access to our Young Business Forum (YBF). YBF provides an insight into young business people in South Australia and is committed to fostering the growth of tomorrow's corporate leaders through valuable networking forums and programs. YBF comprises of individuals aged 20-35 from diverse industry sectors who want access networking and development opportunities at an early stage in their careers.
